

Agenda for
A UN World Environment Day Dialogue on
The Top 10 Elements of a Successful Clean Air Program
Hosted by the
Bay Area Air Quality Management District
Cathedral Hill, San Francisco, CA

Wednesday, June 1, 2005

Times are approximate. Seating is limited. Please call 415-749-4900 to reserve your seat.

11:00 a.m.

Media Availability - Featuring the Air District's new Daimler-Chrysler Hydrogen Fuel Cell Car; Toyota Prius hybrid fleet vehicle; Source Test Van; Mobile Air Monitoring Station; and more.

12:00 noon

Welcome, Opening Remarks, Jack Broadbent, Executive Officer/Air Pollution Control Officer
Keynote Speaker, Marland Townsend, Air District Chairperson and City of Foster City Councilperson
Buffet Luncheon
Video presentation on Bay Area Air Quality Management District's 50 Years of public service

Top Elements of a Successful Clean Air Program

The purpose of this informal seminar is to stimulate conversation and interaction. Expert speakers will give a brief overview of these topics:

- Legal Aspects of Regulation
- Regulate Open Burning
- Permit, Enforcement & Vapor Recovery Programs
- Monitor Air Quality
- Develop Rules & Regulations
- Funding for Air Pollution Programs: Grants
- Educate the Public: Voluntary Programs
- Control Automobile Emissions and Clean Fuels
- Plan for Smart Growth
- Involve Communities

1:45 p.m.

Information tables and exhibits with Air District staff to answer questions

Sign up for an optional guided walking tour of Air District Technical Facilities